- 1.1 All new hires must pass a background verification check before their start date.
- 1.2 Offer letters must be signed by the candidate, the HR Head, and the relevant Department Head.
- 1.3 New employees must submit the following on Day 1: CNIC copy, educational certificates, 2 passport-size photos, bank account details, and emergency contact information.
- 1.4 The company conducts reference checks with at least 2 previous employers before finalizing a hire.

SECTION 2: PROBATION PERIOD [CURRENT]

- 2.1 All employees undergo a 3-month probationary period (revised from 6 months in v1).
- 2.2 During probation, employees accrue leave at a rate of 1 day per month from Month 4 onwards.
- 2.3 Either party may terminate during probation with 7 days written notice.
- 2.4 At the end of probation, the line manager completes a Probation Review form and submits it to HR.
- 2.5 A satisfactory probation review is required before salary increment eligibility.

SECTION 3: COMPENSATION [CURRENT]

- 3.1 Salary increments are processed in January each year, effective from January 1st.
- 3.2 Increments are performance-based and range from 8% to 20% of base salary.
- 3.3 Overtime pay applies for hours worked beyond 48 hours per week at 1.5x the regular hourly rate.
- 3.4 Sales Executives and Branch Managers are eligible for commission and variable pay as per their compensation agreements.
- 3.5 Employees must submit timesheets by the 25th of each month.

SECTION 4: PERFORMANCE REVIEWS [CURRENT]

- 4.1 Formal performance reviews are conducted biannually: in June and in December.
- 4.2 Managers must submit completed KPI scorecards to HR at least 2 weeks before the review date.
- 4.3 Employees receive a written summary of their review outcomes within 5 business days.
- 4.4 Poor performance (below 50% on KPI scorecard) triggers a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) of 60 days.

SECTION 5: GRIEVANCE & DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

- 5.1 Minor infractions (first offense): verbal warning documented by HR.

5.2 Repeated or moderate infractions: written warning, HR file entry.

5.3 Serious infractions (data breach, misconduct, fraud): immediate suspension pending investigation; possible termination.

5.4 Employees may appeal disciplinary decisions to the HR Director within 5 business days.

SECTION 6: HEALTH & SAFETY

6.1 Workplace health and safety compliance is mandatory for all employees.

6.2 Any workplace accidents must be reported to HR and the Safety Officer within 24 hours.
